

White wedding for Rudi

Former Sharks centre marries in Austrian Alps

In February this year, former Sharks centre Rudi Keil, who has been plying his trade in the UK of late, and his beautiful bride, Vikki, exchanged vows at the ski resort of Saalbach Hinterglemm in the Austrian Alps.

Family and friends joined them, most of whom traveled all the way from South Africa, and experienced a truly magical and special winter wonderland wedding. Themed colours were gold and all things shiny and glowing to add to the winter setting.

After getting ready at the Alpine Spa and Hotel, the guests were taken by train to a small church where Rudi awaited Vikki to be walked down the aisle by her Greek father.

Blankets were passed around the church to keep the guests warm as it continued to snow outside, and for most of the day.

After a fun photo session in the snow, guests were welcomed back to the Alpine resort for cocktails around a log fire, before heading to the main reception room where they enjoyed delicious food, schnapps, and heartwarming speeches by close friends and family. Soon after the dance floor opened and everyone danced and celebrated the night away.

Photographs: © Claire Morgan Photography
www.claire-morgan.com

